

REQUEST EXPRESSION OF INTEREST N° 03/CEDEAO/DADR/2024

Publication period: 25/09/ to 09/10/ 2024

Title: Recruitment of an Individual Consultant - (Agro Economist) to support certain States and the ECOWAS Commission in the implementation and monitoring of the key actions of the various reviews.

I. Context

The Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS), represented by the Directorate of Agriculture and Rural Development (DARD), plans to finance from its 2024 budget a mission to support certain States and the ECOWAS Commission in implementing and monitoring the key actions of the various reviews. To carry out this study, the ECOWAS Commission plans to recruit an Individual Consultant responsible for carrying out this mission.

II. Objectives

The main objective of this initiative is to help the ECOWAS Member States (Cabo Verde, Guinea, Guinea Bissau, Niger, Senegal) to implement and monitor the critical actions defined in a regional action plan following a series of in-depth studies.

III. Consultant's mission

The consultant's mission is to provide full support to the ECOWAS Commission and the States of Cabo Verde, Guinea, Guinea Bissau, Niger, and Senegal in implementing and monitoring the critical actions defined in the regional action plan following a series of in-depth studies. Specifically, the consultant will

- ensure the timely implementation of the critical actions of the regional action plan in the target States and ECOWAS institutions.
- Set up a mechanism to monitor progress and evaluate the effectiveness of actions implemented at the national and regional levels.

IV. Consultant profile

Due to the nature of the assignment, the consultant must have the following qualifications and expertise:

- Hold a higher degree (master's or doctorate) in agriculture, economics, rural development or related fields.
- Proven experience in implementing agricultural policies, programmes and interventions in West Africa.
- Excellent communication, facilitation and stakeholder engagement skills, with the ability to work collaboratively in multicultural environments.
- Project management skills: The consultant must have experience in project management, including organising and facilitating kick-off meetings, developing detailed implementation plans and keeping projects on schedule. Experience in preparing inception reports with clear timelines is essential to ensure effective project planning and implementation.
- Stakeholder engagement: Ability to organise stakeholder meetings and engage with a range of stakeholders to discuss and clarify the key action points outlined in the Regional Action Plan. Strong communication and interpersonal skills are required to facilitate productive discussions and ensure alignment between stakeholders.
- Policy implementation expertise: The consultant should have expertise in policy implementation, including the development of detailed plans for the implementation of critical action points, the establishment of coordination mechanisms between states and ECOWAS institutions, and the implementation of actions under the supervision of ECOWAP monitoring and evaluation. Experience in translating policy objectives into achievable plans with clear timetables, accountable parties and resource requirements is crucial.

- Monitoring and evaluation (M&E) skills: Competence in establishing robust reporting mechanisms to monitor progress and document implementation of action points. Experience in collecting data and information at national and regional levels to assess progress and effectiveness is required. Knowledge of monitoring and evaluation methodologies and tools is essential for conducting evaluations and analysing data to measure progress.
- Analytical and reporting skills: Strong analytical skills are required to analyse data collected at national and regional levels and identify key findings and trends. The consultant should have experience in preparing comprehensive reports summarising the implementation of key action points, including key findings, lessons learned and recommendations for improvement. Clear and concise reporting skills are essential to effectively communicate results to stakeholders.
- Proficiency in two official ECOWAS languages would be an asset.
